

Atlantic Bank strengthens community resilience with $5,000 donation to The Belize Red Cross Society

Atlantic Bank reaffirms its commitment to community development with a $5,000 donation to The Belize Red Cross Society (BRCS). This contribution supports BRCS's mission to enhance community resilience through essential services such as healthcare, disaster management, risk reduction, migration support, and training programs.

As a financial institution dedicated to the well-being of Belizeans, Atlantic Bank recognizes the critical role BRCS plays in delivering vital training programs, including first aid, home caregiving, and disaster response. These initiatives equip individuals with life-saving skills, fostering a stronger and more prepared society.

This donation underscores Atlantic Bank's ongoing commitment to initiatives that create lasting positive change across Belize. Through partnerships with organizations like the Belize Red Cross Society, the bank remains steadfast in its mission to strengthen national resilience and enhance the welfare of all Belizeans.

